Managing and running a business in today's changing environment, requires pro-active input from your professional advisers.

With continual changes in employment law and associated legislation, we want our advice to extend beyond problem solving to providing positive and constructive input. In doing so, we aim to ensure that throughout the life of your business, we smooth your progress and minimise any potential liabilities before they occur.

The employment law team combine a wealth of legal knowledge with commercial awareness, providing practical and constructive solutions for your business, regardless of its stage of development.

Advising a wide range of employer clients, our specialist Employment Lawyers provide an extension to your in-house management team, to provide prompt, efficient and cost effective legal advice as and when required.

Areas of advice include:

- Employment Contracts
- Employment Policies and Procedures
- Disciplinary and Grievance Procedures
- Unfair Dismissal Claims
- Redundancy & Reorganisation
- Discrimination Claims
- Other Employment Rights
- Employment Tribunal Representation
- TUPE Transfers
- Compromise Agreements
