Being involved in an accident can be a traumatic time for all concerned. We appreciate that your first concern will be your general well-being and that of any others involved. Accidents can, and do happen, in all manner of places. If you become injured through no fault of your own, our team of personal injury lawyers and advisers, can provide the advice and guidance you will need to assess the possibility of pursuing a claim for compensation. From road traffic accidents to accidents in the street or at work we have the expertise and experience you will need to assist you. Operating on a No Win, No Fee basis, if we find that you have a valid claim for compensation, damages can be awarded for pain and suffering, loss of amenity, loss of earnings, medical costs and other associated out of pocket expenses.

With recognised expertise dealing in highly complex multi-party actions, we have the ability and resources to act on behalf of large numbers of individuals, in a single case. For peace of mind a number of our specialist advisers are members of the Association of Personal Injury Lawyers. Ask us to provide a free initial assessment of your claim without obligation.
